

CAPITAL PLANS TO COMMEMORATE DAY

President Wilson Has Arranged to Attend Joint Celebration at Continental Hall.

The National Capital will commemorate the 133rd anniversary of the birth of George Washington tomorrow by appropriate exercises under the auspices of various societies and patriotic organizations.

President Wilson has signified his intention of attending the joint celebration at Memorial Continental Hall, in charge of the joint committee, composed of representatives of the three societies of the descendants of the Revolution, the Daughters of the Revolution, the Sons of the Revolution in the District, and the District of Columbia Society of the Sons of the Revolution.

Vice President Marshall expects to attend the anniversary services of the Masonic Lodge in Virginia with which Washington was connected. The Masonic exercises are an annual event.

Senator Charles E. Townsend of Michigan will be the principal speaker at the joint exercises at Memorial Continental Hall. Invitations have been sent to the diplomatic residents of Washington and officials of the Government and it is expected there will be a distinguished audience. Harry Bulkeley will read Washington's Farewell Address. A brief address will be made by the Rev. John Britton Clark. Mrs.

William Cunningham Store will preside. The Rev. George H. McGraw, chaplain of the District of Columbia Sons of the American Revolution, will preside at the invocation, and the Rev. Randolph H. McKim, chaplain of the Sons of the Revolution in the District, will pronounce the benediction.

A feature of the exercises will be the reading of the gold medal offered annually by the Sons of the Revolution in the District for the best essay on a Revolutionary topic. Walter S. Smoot, of Central High School, is planned to have the President make the award after the essay has been read.

The committee in charge of the arrangements are Commander John H. Moore, U. S. N. (retired), as chairman, and Col. George Richards, U. S. Marine Corps, of the Sons of the Revolution in the District, as secretary, and the following members of the Revolutionary societies: Mrs. Frank E. Greenwald, State regent; Mrs. Vida A. Clementson, Mrs. E. A. Allan and Mrs. Little Lipscomb, of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution; John Kennedy Stout, Harry Bulkeley, and Gerald DeWitt, of the Sons of the Revolution in the District; John P. Earnest, William A. DeCainey, and Zebina Moses, of the District Society of the Sons of the American Revolution; Associated with this committee are Mrs. Blanche L. Lewis, of the Sons of the American Revolution, and Fred D. Swann, District Society of the Sons of the American Revolution.

Senator Wesley L. Jones will be the principal speaker at the joint exercises at Memorial Continental Hall. Invitations have been sent to the diplomatic residents of Washington and officials of the Government and it is expected there will be a distinguished audience. Harry Bulkeley will read Washington's Farewell Address. A brief address will be made by the Rev. John Britton Clark. Mrs.

Business Houses Open Half Day Tomorrow

Business houses generally will be open half a day tomorrow, but a majority of them will close at 1 o'clock, according to an announcement by Secretary Charles J. Columbus, of the Retail Merchants' Association. The day will also be marked by flags and pictures of George Washington displayed in stores and offices generally.

An tomorrow morning will be one of the few periods of the year when the Government employees have an opportunity to shop uninterruptedly for half a day the retail stores are expected to do a large business.

Widow Seeking Husband Says $1,000 Is Needed

FREMONT, Ohio, Feb. 21.—Mrs. Rose McFadden, a forty-five-year-old widow, who conducted a rooming house here, has advertised in the local papers for a husband.

Mrs. McFadden stipulates that a prospective bridegroom must have $1,000 as a guarantee of good faith. She says she owns her own property, has no children, and her business is a paying one, and that any man marrying her must marry her for the love she can give, provide, but must be able to assume his share of the burdens and earn some of the money.

Greece Bars Transport Of Munitions to Russia

CONSTANTINOPLE (via Amsterdam), Feb. 21.—It is announced officially that the Greek government has forbidden the transportation of ammunition to Russia via Salonika as a result of representations made by the Turkish government.

"BUY IN CAPITAL" CAMPAIGN OPENS

President Andrews, of Retail Merchants' Association, Appeals for Purchases.

A "Buy-in-Washington" campaign is to be launched at the next meeting of the board of governors of the Retail Merchants' Association by R. P. Andrews, president of the organization. In a statement today Mr. Andrews declares that the interests of Washington demand that its citizens generally come to their "commercial colors" to the end that Washington shall enjoy the fruits of honorable endeavor to which its commercial and other activities entitle it.

"I do not know of anything that Capital needs more than the carrying forward in a practical manner of just such a co-operative endeavor as this one," said Mr. Andrews. It will also be possible and should be entirely practical, to agitate a greater interest among consumers for American-made goods.

This latter movement might be admirably carried out through the instrumentality of a pro-American shopping week. "No city in the country offers such advantages as does the Capital, not the least of which is the attractiveness of Washington as a buying point. What we want to pull for in Washington more than anything else, in my opinion, is a greater community spirit. That's what made cities what they are today."

Wilson Glad He Can Help Hebrews

Collier Will Take Supplies to Palestine—Report Is That Russia
Is Cruel in Treatment.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—President Wilson has written to Herman Bernstein, editor of the Day, with his assurance that he considered himself fortunate in being able to do something for the suffering Hebrews in Palestine by designating the collier Vulcan to carry 900 tons of food products from wealthy Hebrews of this country to the starving thousands in Palestine.

"It caused me a great deal of joy," wrote the President, "to learn that there was such a ship of ours going just at the right time."

The Jewish Provisional Zionist Committee has combined its efforts to secure money and food for the Palestine Jews with the efforts of the American Jewish Relief Committee. Gifts for the Vulcan have been received from Detroit, $500 for food; Holyoke, Mass., $100, and Dayton, Ohio, $100.

The total spent by the Committee for the relief of Hebrews in Palestine thus far is $5,000. The committee announces that sums of money will be poured into Palestine every week from now on.

While the lot of Hebrews in Palestine seems to have become lighter, a report sent out by the Jewish Daily Farhah says that the worst kind of outrages are being perpetrated on Hebrews under cover of the military situation, outrages unprecedented even in the annals of Canaan. The government has started a crusade of extermination against the Hebrews, which, in the zone of military operations, is assuming the form of a punitive expedition.

SLAYER'S WIFE KNEW OF HIS "AFFINITY"

For Seven Years Newark Woman Made Friends Think
Her Married Life Was Ideal.

NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 21.—For seven years Mrs. Hiram E. Craig made her fashionable Newark friends believe her married life was ideal, while she was fully cognizant of the fact that her husband was all but living with another woman.

She did it, she confessed today, to spare their twenty-year-old son, Robert, the disgrace of his father's actions. The story came out after Craig, a well-to-do salesman, in a fit of jealous rage, shot and killed the woman he was infatuated with, Miss Hattie Reeves, twenty-six, and her landlady, Mrs. Mary Clarke, at the Clarke home. He then turned the weapon on himself and inflicted wounds which physicians at the City Hospital may prove fatal.

Newark society was shaken severely when the story came out. Mrs. Craig was a active worker in the church, and moved in the best circles—always with her husband. Seven years ago she discovered her husband's infatuation for the woman.

Craig went to the Clarke home, and during Miss Reeves' absence, he waited all night for her. She returned early in the morning, and he immediately accused her of infidelity. When Mrs. Craig intervened for her, Craig whipped a gun from his pocket and shot her dead. Miss Reeves ran shrieking into the bathroom.

Craig followed, and as she covered in

Hold Ship for Party Of Returning Americans

A Word of Hopefulness.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—One hundred Americans who were practically marooned in Paris owing to the suspension of the cross channel service, and who were afraid they would miss the American liner New York, which was scheduled to sail from Liverpool, appealed to Mr. Page, the American ambassador, to help them out. Through his intervention and the kindness of the officials of the American line the sailing of the ship was delayed.
